Child Protection Registry

The Child Protection Registry is maintained by the Division of Family Services of the Department of Services for Children, Youth and Their Families. 16 Del.C. §921.

The primary purpose of the Child Protection Registry is to protect children and to ensure the safety of children in child care, health care, and public educational facilities. The registry contains information about persons who have been substantiated for abuse or neglect as provided in 16 Del.C. §922.

Concerns regarding the information on the BCC from the Child Protection Registry are addressed in “A Guide to Understanding the Child Protection Registry.”
